

CHAPTER ONE

THE BEGINNING OF WISDOM IS:

TO KNOW wisdom and instruction; to perceive the words of understanding. To receive the instruction of wisdom justice, and judgment, and equity. To give subtilty to the simple, to the young man knowledge and discretion. Proverbs 1:2-4

The Little Book

If you have read the Bible, then you may already know what the Scriptures tell us. But, for far too many of us, the words and their meanings are buried so deep that we can be left in the dark. This book shall be 'The Little Book' because of its length, but also about the little book is also told about in the following Scriptures. Many of the things that sound sweet as honey in the Scriptures, will turn out bitter.

REVELATION 10:8 And the voice which I heard from heaven spake unto me again, and said, Go and take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel which standeth upon the sea and upon the earth.

9 And I went unto the angel, and said unto him, Give me the little book. And he said unto me, Take it, and eat it up; and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth sweet as honey.

10 And I took the little book out of the angel's hand, and ate it up; and it was in my mouth sweet as honey: and as soon as I had eaten it, my belly was bitter.

11 And he said unto me, Thou must prophesy again before many peoples, and nations, and tongues, and kings.

You are asked to pay close attention to all the Scriptures in this Little Book and especially to the verse that is in Revelation 10:11. We have all been misinformed about many things; even though there are many professional scholars who have written books about the Scriptures, and appear to be quite knowledgeable on what they believed is the truth.

I am not a professional bible scholar and I have had no expertise in an academic discipline. All that I can reveal to you are the things that the LORD has revealed to me. You may disagree with some of the things that I say in this Little Book, the same as I disagree with the professionals. But the purpose of this Little Book is to turn your head to another direction. If you agree with what is taught here, then you are to prophesy by sharing this information with the rest of the world.

As mentioned, probably nothing is going to make sense at first. This is where those famous words of Arthur Schopenhauer will come into play:

“All truth passes through three stages:

First, it is ridiculed.

Second, it is violently opposed; and Third, it is accepted as self-evident.”

Changing Our Minds

I may as well tell you right from the beginning, that I was born in 1932. This means that I am not only an old person, but have I’ve had plenty of time to think about things. I had to adjust my belief several times during my life. After we have been lied to for all our lives, in our mind a lie can eventually become the truth. Man has been lied to throughout eternity, but the Scriptures tell us that this is about to change. People will say, “Where do you find that in the Bible”?

The LORD came to me in a dream more than half a century ago; only I didn't know it was a dream because it was so real. I was asleep when I suddenly felt the pillow yanked out from beneath my head. I abruptly sat up as I opened my eyes and saw an apparition in the doorway of the bedroom; the whole room was lit up. The apparition appeared as a flame that filled the doorway, and I knew that it was the LORD. I was so dumbfounded that all I could think of was to ask, "What do you want me to do to fulfill your will?" The apparition pointed to the Bible that suddenly appeared on a nightstand besides my bed and answered, "Read it", and told me in time all my questions would be answered. He then vanished and the room went dark again. After sitting at the edge of my bed contemplating about what had just occurred, I went to lay back down. When I went to reach for my pillow, I was shocked to find that my body was already lying down and that it had been my spirit who was talking to the LORD.

I realize now that this dream had a lot of spiritual meaning in it, but at the time, it was very real to me and I shared it with a lot of people, all of who had their doubts. One of those I spoke to was the minister of my church; he responded by saying that it sounded like it was the result of taking some drugs. (I have never taken drugs except for my prescription,)

I may as well tell you right from the beginning that I was born in 1932. This means that I am not only an old person but have had plenty of time to think about things. After reading my Bible, chapter by chapter - for the second time - I learned nothing new. I have had the same book ever since I was a teenager, which is THE AUTHORIZED 1611 VERSION OF THE KING JAMES BIBLE. I even changed churches a few times. I went from teaching a Sunday school class at a Presbyterian church for many of my younger years, to joining a metaphysical church and then later a Universal Unitarian Church. After that, a non-denominational church called Crossroads. These were all great churches, but not for me.

PROVERBS 1:5 A wise man will hear, and will increase learning; and a man of understanding shall attain unto wise counsels:
6 To understand a proverb, and the interpretation; the words of the wise, and their dark sayings.

I didn't know how blind I was, I thought I knew the truth, but I didn't. I knew that there is more to life than what we had been taught and I was GROPING AT NOONDAY, just like the Scripture below says:

DEUTERONOMY 28:29 And thou shalt grope at noonday, as the blind gropeth in darkness, and thou shalt not prosper in thy ways:
and thou shalt be only oppressed and spoiled evermore, and no man shall save thee.

About Christmas

In 1990, my daughter wrote and published a book about Christmas revealing the truth of its creation. This book opened my eyes to Christmas. I sold all my Christmas stuff and told my children and grandchildren that there would be no more cards and gifts from me at Christmas time. Though they didn't understand, they accepted my beliefs. Most of them continue to celebrate Christmas, yet, I have watched as they struggle each year financially, as see so many others do as well.

There is no harm in partaking in the celebration of Christmas as long as we know that this is not a celebration about an imaginary birth born in a manger. Christmas should be about love and thanksgiving and sharing with those who are less fortunate than us.

Revealing the Bible's Truth

It was a little over a decade later my whole perspective of what I thought was the truth had changed. I read the four books that were written by Robert G. Barbaria on: 'Revealing the Bible's Truth', 'The Rod of Iron', 'Mystery Babylon the Great Where', and 'Revelation of the Fourth Son'. The things I learned from reading those books, which are now out of print, held a lot of interpretations which have helped me advance much further, but I didn't realize that my mind was still muddy, even though the things I learned turned my life around even more from where it was before.

It is true that none can realize they have an unclear mind until it is proven otherwise. We can read lots of books and do lots of research, but we can end up the blind following the blind. We can argue up a storm claiming to be right on a certain subject, but more often than not, nothing is proven until after the fact. I am not asking you to believe the things I share with you in this Little Book. I am hoping you will check things out for yourselves. I'm not claiming to know the absolute, only what I have been shown, and led to share.

This next Scripture tells us about what is between the banks of Ulai; this is about explaining what the Scriptures are about. ULAI is an ancient Hebrew word of etymology that means muddy or not clear, but also clear water. The banks are the two side that holds the water.

DANIEL 8:16 And I heard a man's voice between the banks of Ulai, which called, and said, Gabriel, make this man to understand the vision.

This next Scripture tells us about what is between the banks of Ulai; it explains what the Scriptures are about. ULAI is an ancient Hebrew word of etymology that means muddy or not clear, but also clear water. The banks are the two side that holds the water.

DANIEL 8:16 And I heard a man's voice between the banks of Ulai, which called, and said, Gabriel, make this man to understand the vision.

Angels

Man has depicted from early Christian teachings that angels have wings; angels to have wings, but not the kind we think of them having. ANGELS are the rescuers who offer their protection. This form of protection is applied when someone takes us under their wing. A fallen angel is someone or something that leads us in the wrong direction.

RUTH 2:12 The LORD recompense thy work, and a full reward be given thee of the LORD God of Israel, under whose wings thou art come to trust.

I don't know where man got the idea that angels have wings. However, they are depicted as having wings in all the paintings we have seen about them. The world is full of angels, although many of them have fallen from heaven. An angel is a person or an idea that helps us to climb to a higher level of learning the Scriptures and helps us to help others to do so. The LORD wants us to be an angel and help by teaching other people to learn the truth of the Scriptures.

MATTHEW 13:38 The field is the world; the good seed are the children of the kingdom; but the tares are the children of the wicked one;

39 The enemy that sowed them is the devil; the harvest is the end of the world; and the reapers are the angels.

40 As therefore the tares are gathered and burned in the fire; so shall it be in the end of this world.

41 The Son of man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that offend, and them which do iniquity;

42 And shall cast them into a furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

43 Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.

GABRIEL is a word that means God is my strength. There are many angels here on earth who have fallen by the wayside; they may think they are helping, but they are not. By the time I reached my 90th birthday, I realized that it was Gabriel who appeared to me over half a century ago. There is a battle taking place that is called the battle of Armageddon. This is a battle of words about the truth versus lies. The SON OF MAN is the idea of sending forth his angel who will reap the sinful liars and cast them into a FURNACE OF FIRE ... this means that their lies will be exposed.

DANIEL 9:21 Yea, whiles I was speaking in prayer, even the man Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, being caused to fly swiftly, touched me about the time of the evening oblation.

22 And he informed me, and talked with me, and said, O Daniel, I am now come forth to give thee skill and understanding.

Heathens

We have been told that a heathen is a person who does not belong to a widely held religion (especially one who is not a Christian, Jew, or Muslim) as regarded by those who do. Just to be sure, I researched this subject, and this was confirmed.

There are many actions of Catholic's going to Church kneeling in front of a crucifix to pray. Albeit, that their prayers are seen and heard, but does the LORD God truly hear them? Prayer beads are a form of beadwork that is vainly used to count the repetitions of prayers, chants, or mantras by members of various religions such as Hinduism and Buddhism. We know from Scripture that neither vain prayer, religious beads or rituals of worship have anything to do with communicating with God.

MATTHEW 6:6 But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly. 7 But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking.

There are many different types of religious activities done in vanity. Scriptures tells us to rebuke those ways!

MATTHEW 15:14 Let them alone: they be blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch.

Traditions, like Christmas and Easter, actually have nothing to do with Jesus. These two holidays, along with other religious holidays, are deceptions of Satan for misleading His people.

The Bible does not mention a Christmas tree, but it does talk about the tree that is cut from the forest, an evergreen tree that was deemed a symbol of life and has become a product farmed for profit, for those who can afford the fresh scent for a short time. There is a driving spirit that seduces multitudes to have a Christmas tree in their homes, shopping malls, offices, and even the White House.

JEREMIAH 10 - HEAR ye the word which the LORD speaketh unto you, O house of Israel:

2 Thus saith the LORD, Learn not the way of the heathen, and be not dismayed at the signs of heaven; for the heathen are dismayed at them.

3 For the customs of the people are vain: for one cutteth a tree out of the forest, the work of the hands of the workman, with the axe.

4 They deck it with silver and with gold; they fasten it with nails and with hammers, that it move not.

5 They are upright as the palm tree, but speak not: they must needs be borne, because they cannot go. Be not afraid of them; for they cannot do evil, neither also is it in them to do good.

Although it appears that the above Scripture is about the Christmas tree, it isn't. There are many Scriptures in the Bible about trees. Scriptures are full of idioms, and this is one of them. The idiom is saying: "We can't see the forest for the trees", and it means that there are parts distracting us from comprehending the whole. We can't see the entirety when we are preoccupied with the details and overlook the bigger picture or the end goal.

The people who have lost faith in God feel that there are many reasons for their disbelief. They say there is no convincing proof of evidence to believe in a God. Mankind can be blinded and disillusioned by personal problems, disappointments, times of sorrow and pain. Overwhelming acts of evil seem inconsistent with the existence of a God who is supposed to be wholly good, and has the power to do anything. Some believe that a loving God would not allow pain, disease, natural disasters and evil to exist, therefore they shun any belief in God, and in His Word. Yet, we can't see the whole picture, the reason and purpose of such realities.

When people have no faith in God, they put faith in themselves. By not knowing what the one true God is, they think that there is no reason to believe in something that seems unjust to them, especially in time of natural disaster where they lose everything, or at a time when they lose a loved one who has died, or in extreme pain and prayer brings little to no help.

Although people of religious faith believe in God as a Spirit who watches over and guides us, they also believe that He answers our prayers. Most believers think that Jesus was a flesh and blood man who walked on Earth, and was crucified on the cross. However, both of these thoughts are misconceptions. People are losing faith in God every day because of ignorance. With threats of war and hatred on the rise, many ask, “Where is God”? I am horrified, as so many others are, seeing multitudes of homelessness growing more dire each year. How can a loving God allow such tragedy? If only we knew God’s plan. If only we could see the whole picture.

Most people in the world are considered to be heathen, as it is written in Scripture. Whether of Christian or Judaism belief, whether religious or not, most do not realize this truth. The lyrics to some of our most popular songs are heathen; the music is wonderful, but the words are about lust and killing. Even most of the hymn that put people in a peaceful and exalted mood are about the spirit of Jesus, but not about praise the LORD God and giving thanks to Him.

PALAM 18:49 O LORD, among the heathen, and I will sing praises unto thy name.

Jehovah

Scripture from the King James Bible differs from a Revised Bible because it tells us that Jehovah is God’s name. JEHOVAH means “The eternal one,” and “The living

one. God's Spirit lives in each of us whether we are good or evil. This makes us what we are or have carved out for ourselves; and this is how we are created in image of God. This use of God's name is from the King James 1611 Bible.

EXODUS 3:13 And Moses said unto God, Behold, when I come unto the children of Israel, and shall say unto them, The God of your fathers hath sent me unto you; and they shall say to me, What is his name? what shall I say unto them?

14 And God said unto Moses, I AM THAT I AM: and he said, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, I AM hath sent me unto you.

The Hebrew Spelling of God's Name

There are some Christians, reading from a revised bible, who shun the name of Jehovah because their revised Bible says that God's name is "Yahweh". Mainstream Christians have criticized Jehovah's Witnesses for their beliefs and practices and want no association with them.

Some of the people who are reading revised bibles have shunned the word of Jehovah by saying that God's name is Yahweh. The Hebrew meaning of YHWH, and can be summarized as either JEHOVAH OR YAHWEH. In either case, the meaning is in reference to He Who Causes That-Which-Is To Be & He Who Causes That-which Can't-Be To Fall.

PSALM 83:18 That men may know that thou, whose name alone is JEHOVAH, art the most high over all the earth.

The Sons of God

Ideas are called SONS; These are thought that are born and have life. Jesus is the best idea mankind has had for saving himself. This is the knowledge and awareness that makes Jesus the only begotten Son of God.

Ideas are born from thoughts; these are called SONS.: Life on this earth is only temporary; the earth has gone through many cycles, and man has had plenty of time to repent from clinging to all the equipment and joy of living here, but the earth is falling apart and can end at any moment. There is only one way in which we can save ourselves, but it is not taught in any of the churches. There is no knowledge or awareness that can save us, unless we repent before it is too late.

The Workmen

ZEPHANIAH 1 - THE word of the LORD which came unto Zephaniah the son of Cushi, the son of Gedaliah, the son of Amariah, the son of Hizkiah, in the days of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah

What I believe the Scripture in Zephaniah 1 is telling us is that the mystery to the Scriptures have been hidden and are confusing and unclear to those who don't understand them. This is the greatness of the LORD who says and strengthens us in a time of despair, that we will be a workman by your participation in spreading the news. We need to give the LORD much praise and thanksgiving.

If we look at this Scripture, there are a lot of names, which have been listed below summarizing their Hebrew meanings in etymology. It is not necessary to know all the names, but I will summarize the Scripture for you, and then we can look at the list of names listed just below.

- ZEPHANIAH Means Yah Stores Up, Yah. Yah is the shortened version of Yahweh.

- CUSH means confusing or unclear.

- GEDALIAH means Yah Has Made Great

- AMARIAH means Yah Said

- HEZEKIAH means Yah Strengthens

- JOSIAH: Despair Of Yah , Support / Woman / Fire Offering Of Yah

- AMON means Master Workman, A Nourisher

- JUDAH means praise and thanksgiving, 8 Why God Does What He Does

Explaining God to Children

There is a story that the late Alan Watts used when trying to explain God to small children. Mr. Watts was an English writer, speaker, and a self-styled "philosophical entertainer", known for interpreting and popularizing Buddhist, Taoist, and Hindu philosophy for a Western audience. I have taken the liberty to quote that story for you.

THERE was never a time when the world began because it goes round and round like a circle, and there is no place on a circle where it begins. Look at my watch, which tells the time; it goes round, and so the world repeats itself again and again. But just as the hour-hand of the watch goes up to twelve and down to six, so, too, there is day and night, waking and sleeping, living and dying, summer and winter.

You can't have any one of these without the other, because you wouldn't be able to know what black is unless you had seen it side-by-side with white, or white unless side-by-side with black.

In the same way, there are times when the world is, and times when it isn't, for if the world went on and on without rest for ever and ever, it would get horribly tired of itself. It comes and it goes. Now you see it; now you don't. So because it doesn't get tired of itself, it always comes back again after it disappears. It's like your breath: it goes in and out, in and out, and if you try to hold it in all the time you feel terrible. It's also like the game of hide-and-seek because it's always fun to find new ways of hiding, and to seek someone who doesn't always hide in the same place.

God also likes to play hide-and-seek, but because there is nothing outside God, he has no one but himself to play with. But he gets over this difficulty by pretending that he is not himself. This is his way of hiding from himself. He pretends that he is you and I and all the people in the world, all the animals, all the plants, all the rocks, and all the stars. In this way he has strange and wonderful adventures, some of which are terrible and frightening. But these are just like bad dreams, for when he wakes up they will disappear.

Now when God plays hide and pretends that he is you and I, he does it so well that it takes him a long time to remember where and how he hid himself. But that's the whole fun of it—just what he wanted to do. He doesn't want to find himself too quickly, for that would spoil the game. That is why it is so difficult for you and me to find out that we are God in disguise, pretending not to be himself. But when the game has gone on long enough, all of us will wake up, stop pretending, and remember that we are all one single Self—the God who is all that there is and who lives for ever and ever.

Of course, you must remember that God isn't shaped like a person. People have skins and there is always something outside our skins. If there weren't, we wouldn't know the difference between what is inside and outside our bodies. But God has no skin and no shape because there isn't-any outside to him. The inside and the outside of God are the same. And though I have been talking about God as 'he and not 'she, God isn't a man or a woman. I didn't say 'it because we usually say 'it for things that aren't alive.

God is the Self of the world, but you can't see God for the same reason that, without a mirror, you can't see your own eyes, and you certainly can't bite your own teeth or look inside your head. Your Self is that cleverly hidden because it is God hiding.

You may ask why God sometimes hides in the form of horrible people or pretends to be people who suffer great disease and pain. Remember, first, that he isn't really doing this to anyone but himself. Remember, too, that in almost all the stories you enjoy there must be bad people as well as good people, for the thrill of the tale is to find out how the good people will get the better of the bad. It's the same as when we play cards. At the beginning of the game, we shuffle them all into a mess, which is like the bad things in the world, but the point of the game is to put the mess into good order, and the one who does it best is the winner. Then we shuffle the cards once more and play again, and so it goes with the world." Alan Watts, (1915-1973)

One might think that there is an error in Mr. Watts story because he states that there was never a time when the world began. This may appear to be in conflict with the beginning of Genesis 1, which says: IN the beginning God created the heaven and the earth. So, there has to be a beginning and an end, REVELATION 21- AND I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea.

Returning to Heaven

Wisdom is in knowing what you are. If a child of God thinks that his spirit remains with his body, then he is doomed. The body is a vessel to live in. A blind person without physical eyesight can see us much better than we see ourselves because they see at us as being a spirit. When we die and leave this world, our remains are left behind. In the spirit world we are known by our personality because it remains the same until we change it and it is kicked out of heaven. The children of Israel are those who have come down from heaven and shall return to heaven until it is time to come back to a new heaven and a new earth.

JOHN 3:13 And no man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man which is in heaven.

God calls His children sheep because they are humble and meek, and follow the voice of their shepherd. Many of God's sheep have wandered off and are lost. They have become goats seated on the left hand of God.

MATTHEW 25:31 When the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory:

32 And before him shall be gathered all nations: and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats:

33 And he shall set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left.

There shall be no one who has not been chosen that shall ascend to heaven for these are the sinful and lustful, the cruel and evil whose only means to heaven is through deception.

JOHN 10 - VERILY, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber.

2 But he that entereth in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep.

A child of Israel has been given the opportunity to better himself and have a much happier life than ever before by knowing the difference between right and wrong and by doing the best he can to be a better person.

Seeing the Face of God

The Scriptures were handed down over countless generations from mouth to mouth before being inscribed on stone tablets, then scrolls, then to the printing machines. Up until that time of the printing machine, only the chief and high priests were in possession of the Holy Scriptures. Down through the ages, language has changed, but the Word of God has not changed. The Bible is based on both words from ancient etymology that most people don't understand, and the words of today.

REVELATION 22:3 And there shall be no more curse: but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it; and his servants shall serve him:

4 And they shall see his face; and his name shall be in their foreheads.

5 And there shall be no night there; and they need no candle, neither light of the sun; for the Lord God giveth them light: and they shall reign for ever and ever.

There is no secret in revealing the nature of God because the Scriptures are quite plain; yet most people don't know Him, they only think they do. This is a very serious subject because there are many views of how people perceive God. This is not to say that all other views are in error; but from my viewpoint they do need to be addressed because some people have placed God out of reach, or falsely think He walks beside them.

I want to pause here for a moment and explained why the LORD is referred to as “He”. In the Scriptures, what belongs to God is referred to as “he”, and what belongs to Satan is referred to as “she.” Neither of these two words have anything to do with gender.

God is referred to as He, and I have capitalized His name because of His importance. Now, everything has a spirit, but not all is God’s Spirit. Anything that is created by the hands of man, such as computers, AI, designer babies, robots, chip implantation, etcetera are classified as a “she” and are created by the spirit of Satan.

I can remember a conversation between my three small children that took place sixty-five years ago, after I had told them that God is everywhere. I overheard them conversing one rainy day as they looked out the window. Here is what I overheard: “God is out there.” “Yes, He is in those cars.” “And He is in those trees.” “Yes, And He is even in those wires up there” “Uh-Uh, He would be electrocuted.”

Being electrocuted is the same as being fried and pertains to being exhausted or worn out. This is a good expression to use for those who once thought differently than what the Scriptures tell us. I was wrong back then, in my interpretation of what God is, because I was following a religion.

This next Scriptures tells us that salvation is of the Jews. Some Christians are Jews but don’t know it. The etymology of JEW means being a praiser, hand holder and former. People of religion are great Samaritans; they help out other people and are angels, although they are worshipping other gods.

JOHN 4: 22 Ye worship ye know not what: we know what we worship: for salvation is of the Jews.

23 But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such.

Let's take a look at who you are and say to yourself, "I AM." "I am of God." This is a connotation that means that we are all a part of God. When we hurt other people, we are hurting ourselves because we are all a part of God.

ISAIAH 45:5 I am the LORD, and there is none else, there is no God beside me: I girded thee, though thou hast not known me:

6 That they may know from the rising of the sun, and from the west, that there is none beside me. I am the LORD, and there is none else.

7 I form the light, and create darkness: I make peace, and create evil: I the LORD do all these things.

There are many biblical differences in revised bibles. Some of these differences will be shown to you in this Little Book. Even though the other bibles have added and deleted some of the words and have changed some of the meanings in places, they still keep this same passage at the end of their books. Isn't this ironic?"

REVELATION 22:18 For I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book:

19 And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book.

It will be easy for some to be fooled by false Christ's and false prophets. Technology and magicians are at a height. Hopefully, some of the things you will be learning in this Little Book will save you.

MATTHEW 24:23 Then if any man shall say unto you, Lo, here is Christ, or there; believe it not.

24 For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect.

25 Behold, I have told you before.

26 Wherefore if they shall say unto you, Behold, he is in the desert; go not forth: behold, he is in the secret chambers; believe it not.

27 For as the lightning cometh out of the east, and shineth even unto the west; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

A wise man will hear and will increase learning; and a man of understanding shall attain unto wise counsels: To understand a proverb, and the interpretation; the words of the wise. Proverbs 5-6
